

The Leading HOME PAPER of Boston

BOSTON AMERICAN

FOURTH EDITION

Vol. 6—No. 161. BOSTON, MONDAY, AUGUST 30, 1909. PRICE ONE CENT.

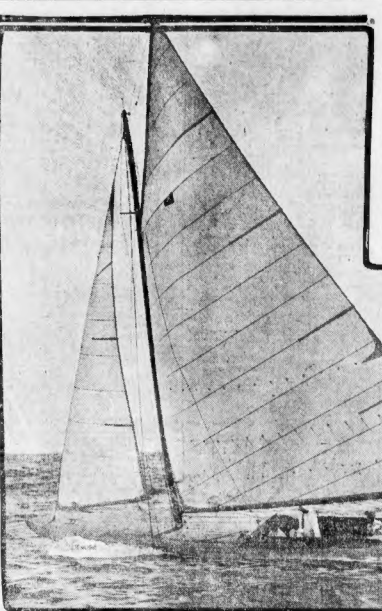

REELS END SUICIDE

The tragic end of young Clarence C. Bell, who shot himself down on the steps of the police station at Hartford after he had spent an inheritance of $15,000 and followed it up by sowing a swath of bad checks through several New England States, was told today by Joseph August of Boston, the owner of an automobile which the young man tried to take him from this city to Connecticut.

Bell, who killed himself yesterday, was a relative of former Governor Bell of Vermont, who came into the limelight at the time of the execution of Mary Rogers. He was the son of the late Charles Bell of Hartford, Vt. His mother lived at Grotonfield. From the time he was six years of age until he came into his money at twenty-one he was the ward of L. O. Preston of Roxbury.

Continued on Page 3, Column 2.

Yacht Ellen, a Favorite American in Cup Race

JOYETTE LEADS FIRST RACE

American Boats Lead Home in Opening Contest off Marblehead, With the Germans Trailing.

MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 30.—The American sloop yacht vanquished their German competitors in the Marblehead waters today on a triangular course of fifteen miles, the Joyette, Ellen and Wolf, carrying the Stars and Stripes, finishing in that order before a single German boat reached the starting point.

The fleet-footed Joyette finished the entire course in two hours and forty-four minutes, crossing the line at 2 o'clock amid great enthusiasm on shore and aboard the flotillas of craft in the bay.

The German boats finished in the order: Margaretha, first; Hevelia, second; and the line at 2 o'clock amid great enthusiasm on shore and aboard the flotillas of craft in the bay.

The race was sailed over the triangular course in a stiff breeze.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

The boats were about the middle of the fleet when the race began, the air being light and the sea calm.

DISS DE BAR'S TEMPLE RAIDED BY THE POLICE

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Detectives McCabe of the Central Office and several other detectives filed the "Mahatma in the Temple" today, questioning Ann O'Della Diss De Bar at great length and practically raiding the place by seizing letters and papers in the aged woman's home.

After the raid had been made Mrs. Diss De Bar received a reporter in her "chamber room."

Among other things she declared positively that she had once treated Mrs. Regency Pitt for mental troubles.

Mrs. Regency Pitt denies that she ever took any sort of treatment from her.

"I treated her for mental illness on a number of occasions," declared Mrs. Diss De Bar. "It is true that she did not know me as she did because I was then known as Mrs. Yola Thompson and lived at 40th street."

"Who did you assume the name of?" she asked.

"Well, of all things," declared the aged woman, "I assumed the name of Thompson."

"That's a queer question," she said. "I don't know the name of Thompson."

"That's a queer question," she said. "I don't know the name of Thompson."

DOES TACKLE CINCINNATI'S IN LAST GAME

BOSTON, Aug. 30.—The Boston Red Sox today took the field against the Cincinnati Reds for the final game of the series this afternoon. Both teams were keen on winning and they put their best available players on the mound.

The weather was delightful and a large crowd was on hand to root for the Sox.

Tomorrow the Pittsburgh Pirates, game to Boston, and when they depart the Braves will take the field.

Most of the line between the Sox and the Pirates will be spent in the West.

The weather was delightful and a large crowd was on hand to root for the Sox.

Tomorrow the Pittsburgh Pirates, game to Boston, and when they depart the Braves will take the field.

Most of the line between the Sox and the Pirates will be spent in the West.

The weather was delightful and a large crowd was on hand to root for the Sox.

Tomorrow the Pittsburgh Pirates, game to Boston, and when they depart the Braves will take the field.

RE SOX IN LAST GAME WITH NAPS

BOSTON, Aug. 30.—The Boston Red Sox today took the field against the Cincinnati Reds for the final game of the series this afternoon. Both teams were keen on winning and they put their best available players on the mound.

The weather was delightful and a large crowd was on hand to root for the Sox.

Tomorrow the Pittsburgh Pirates, game to Boston, and when they depart the Braves will take the field.

Most of the line between the Sox and the Pirates will be spent in the West.

The weather was delightful and a large crowd was on hand to root for the Sox.

Tomorrow the Pittsburgh Pirates, game to Boston, and when they depart the Braves will take the field.

Most of the line between the Sox and the Pirates will be spent in the West.

The weather was delightful and a large crowd was on hand to root for the Sox.

Tomorrow the Pittsburgh Pirates, game to Boston, and when they depart the Braves will take the field.

ATHLETICS STRIKE HARD SERIES NOW

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—The Athletics, headed by the great Connie Mack, appeared here today to open a series with the White Sox. The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

The Athletics have a hard series to win, as the White Sox are a strong team.

CALL LIVESAVERS OUT ON A HOAX

Some practical joker wrote a note reading: "Major boat Helen M. sailing off Nahant. Long Hiram, 157 Moody street, Nahant." Then he telephoned it in a bottle and it floated on in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

It was reported that the note was found in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

It was reported that the note was found in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

It was reported that the note was found in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

It was reported that the note was found in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

It was reported that the note was found in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

It was reported that the note was found in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

It was reported that the note was found in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

It was reported that the note was found in the harbor at Nahant, where it was found by Alvin Brown.

SCIENTISTS TAKE UP WHEAT RAISING

WINNETKA, Ill., Aug. 30.—The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

The officers of the National Association for the Advancement of Science met today for the purpose of holding a number of sessions on the subject of wheat raising.

AUTO CRASHES GET CLEW TO TURTLE THEFT

REVERLY, Aug. 30.—Arthur Winger, an inspector for the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, reported today that while on his motorcycle yesterday afternoon he saw two men running through the woods along the Tappan road. He said they hid when they heard his coming. It is thought the men may be the two persons who robbed the Magnolia summer house of Laticus Turtletau, president of the Boston & Maine Railroad.

Winger valued at over $1,000, the property of two daughters of the railroad magnate, was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until late in the afternoon, when one of the daughters went to her room and found that her jewel box had been broken. The matter was reported to the Gloucester Police.

Winger valued at over $1,000, the property of two daughters of the railroad magnate, was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until late in the afternoon, when one of the daughters went to her room and found that her jewel box had been broken. The matter was reported to the Gloucester Police.

Winger valued at over $1,000, the property of two daughters of the railroad magnate, was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until late in the afternoon, when one of the daughters went to her room and found that her jewel box had been broken. The matter was reported to the Gloucester Police.

Winger valued at over $1,000, the property of two daughters of the railroad magnate, was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until late in the afternoon, when one of the daughters went to her room and found that her jewel box had been broken. The matter was reported to the Gloucester Police.

Winger valued at over $1,000, the property of two daughters of the railroad magnate, was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until late in the afternoon, when one of the daughters went to her room and found that her jewel box had been broken. The matter was reported to the Gloucester Police.

Winger valued at over $1,000, the property of two daughters of the railroad magnate, was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until late in the afternoon, when one of the daughters went to her room and found that her jewel box had been broken. The matter was reported to the Gloucester Police.

Winger valued at over $1,000, the property of two daughters of the railroad magnate, was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until late in the afternoon, when one of the daughters went to her room and found that her jewel box had been broken. The matter was reported to the Gloucester Police.

Winger valued at over $1,000, the property of two daughters of the railroad magnate, was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until late in the afternoon, when one of the daughters went to her room and found that her jewel box had been broken. The matter was reported to the Gloucester Police.

"The Greatest Detective in the World."

Story of the remarkable French play, "Arsene Lupin," which created a sensation last week in its first New York production by Charles Frohman.

BEGINS IN THE BOSTON AMERICAN TOMORROW.

HERE AND NOW

By ELA WHEELER WILCOX
HERE in the heart of the world;
Here in the noise and the din,
Here where our spirits were hurled
To battle with sorrow and sin—
This is the place and the spot
For knowledge of infinite things;
This is the kingdom where thought
Can conquer the powers of kings.

Wait for no heavenly life;
Seek for no temple alone,
Here, in the midst of strife,
Know what the angels have known;
See what the perfect man saw—
God in the depths of each soul,
God as the light and the law,
God as the beginning and goal.

The Debt Children Owe Their Parents

Appreciation and Love, While They Live, Pay This Debt.

By DOROTHY DIX.
SATURDAY I spoke of the debt the parents owe to their children.

What do children owe to their parents? Not so much as their parents owe them, but still a pretty penny, when all is told.

First, of course, children owe their parents gratitude. Suppose if the parents are poor. Many and many a day the tired, worn-out old hands toiled that the child might have a home.

Every man and woman who has an old father or an old mother under their roof should thank God for the privilege of being able to pay in some small measure the debt they owe their parents, for all the sacrifices that their parents made for them in their infancy.

The warmest seat by the fire, the tidest of the table, the best that the house affords, belongs by right to the old people on whom their lives younger and more prosperous have depended.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

Children owe honor and reverence to their parents. The most unpleasant characteristic in the lack of respect that young people show to old people is that while their aged grandfathers and grandmothers, and aunts and uncles, and even their parents, are treated with respect and honor, the children of the same family are treated with contempt and disrespect.

"Her Hobby" By Nell Brinkley

And her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows

MARY LADY is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

My lady is only a child yet—A little child. Here, lady, and her horse bowls over the tin soldiers—while the boy hangs over and shoots them full of arrows.

WANDERER'S SONG By ARTHUR SYMONS

I HAVE had enough of women and enough of love,
But the land waits, and the sea waits, and the night is enough;
Give me a long white road, and the gray wide path of the sea,
And the wind's will and the bird's will and the heartache still in me.

Why should I seek out sorrow, and give gold for strife?
I have loved much and wept much, but tears and love are not life;
The grass calls to my heart, and the foam to my blood cries out,
The sun shines and the road shines, and the wine's in the cup.

I have had enough of wisdom, and a enough of truth,
For the ways of men and the ways of the sea, and the ways of the night;
And it's time now to go to bed, and to sleep, and to sleep, and to sleep,
Well, it's sound sleep, and long sleep, and sleep too deep to wake.

Manicure Lady Boosts Stenography She Tells How Sister Mayme Is Acquiring a Swell Vocabulary

"MAYME is getting along great with the Manicure Lady," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

"I don't think so," said the Manicure Lady. "She's got a swell vocabulary."

SPIZER & CO., 4 and 7 Billerica st.—
hanging, $1.45; painting, $1.20; whitewashing outside house painting reasonable; work guaranteed and prompt.

7. STANE, 80 Leavett st.—Papering painting $1.20, whitewashing 2 coats 50c.

Do You Know This Woman?

By T. E. POWERS. Copyright, 1999, by American Journal Examiners.

Now, Men See More Clearly, and, KNOWING THE TRUTH, Are Free

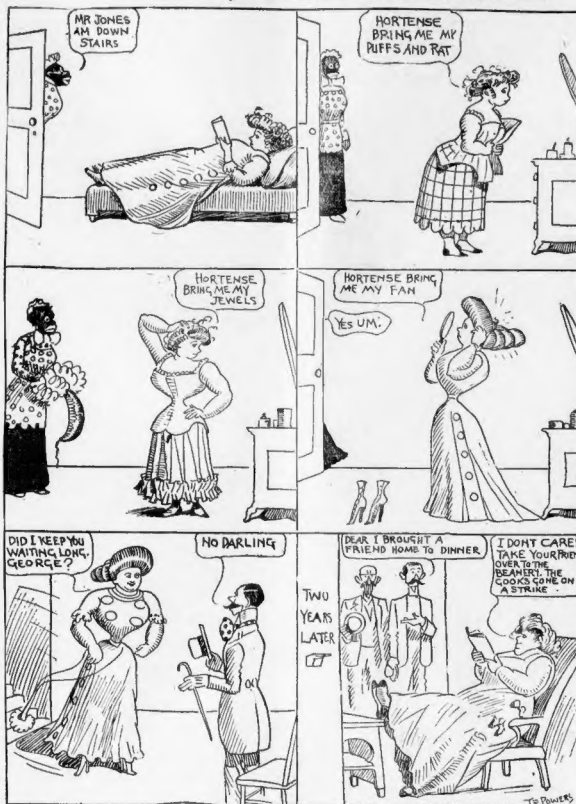

History moves, and history's moving pictures change.

With the telescope and the power of the brain, man travels millions

Do You Know This Woman?

By T. E. POWERS. Copyright, 1999, by American Journal Examiners.

I'm Glad I'm Single!

Copyright, 1909, by American Economic Association

They Used to Say "The Devil Is Eating the Sun"

Continued from First Column

Men begin to know the truth, and gradually the truth frees them. All the truth, or as much as our finite minds can grasp, will gradually be revealed to us, not by the pagan priests of old, with his devils and his fairy stories, and his knife that pierced the human victim's heart, but by the brain and power of man, the patient work of science, the public school, the free press, by REALIZATION OF THE FACT THAT THE ONLY EVIL IS IGNORANCE, AND THAT THE WORST IGNORANCE EXPRESSES ITSELF IN SUPERSTITION.

Little Bobbie's Pa

=By WILLIAM F. KIRK

that time how true his words was destined to be. That was many, many yeers ago. I know he will be glad to see me, & I want you to watch him git red in an interesting reading for a ple are almost out and then spring hastily aside without trying to make the in-goers enter in an orderly manner. I saw an officer actually get caught in the crush once and swept bodily into the car. There are plenty of signs up bidding patrons of the

LETTERS FROM AMERICAN READERS

PARKHURST VS. ELIOT.